Dear Residents

Opening of BBQ Pits

With reference to the latest advisory by BCA, the BBQ pits can continue to be re-opened from 20 January 2021 onwards.

The following safe distancing principles shall applied:

- a. Individuals to always maintain safe distancing of at least one meter.
- b. Where not feasible to apply one-meter safe distancing rule between individuals, the 1m requirement can be enforced between groups of no more than 8 people each. Do not mix between groups.
- c. Reopen only alternate BBQ pits if these are in close proximity, to minimise mixing or interaction between different groups;
- d. Limit the use of each BBQ pit to one group of up to 8 persons only i.e. no sharing of pits by more than one group;
- e. Ensure that the relevant particulars (e.g. name and contact number) for all users, including subsidiary proprietors, are registered with the MCST to facilitate contact tracing;
- f. Ensure that each strata unit is only allowed one BBQ pit booking at any time i.e. a new booking can only be made after an existing booking expires;
- g. Ensure that all users either keep their TraceTogether apps turned on or bring their TraceTogether token; and
- h. Disallow anyone with visible respiratory symptoms or fever from using the BBQ pits.

MCST reserve the right to withdrawing or terminating any BBQ pit booking, including an ongoing booking, if any user refuses or is unable to comply with any of the SMMs.

Thank you for your co-operation in our continuous effort to fight the virus and stay safe.
